

Bachelor of Business Administration in Logistics Management
(English Program)
Faculty of Management Sciences

Program Highlights

The program emphasizes the management and integration of customer service, inventory, packaging and disposal.

Objectives

The Logistics Management Program aims for the delegate graduates who have a developed and in-depth knowledge of all aspects of transportation systems with important considerations in legal, and regulatory issues.

Program learning outcomes

Knowledge: By the end of four years, learners are expected to attain competency in the governance of supply chain management functions that helps organizations plan, manage and implement processes to move and store goods such as logistics and supply chain management, data analysis, strategic supply chain management, and more.

Skills: Enhanced skills namely, numeracy, project management, problem-solving, service operations, etc.

Tuition Fees

59,950 THB- 1st Semester of the 1st year
58,750 THB- 2nd Semester of the 1st year (and for the rest of the regular semesters)

Admission requirements

1. High school diploma (equivalent to 12 years of secondary school)
2. Portfolio of not more than 10 pages (not including the cover page)
3. A copy of the applicant's identification card